

By Kevin Siembieda

One game system – every genre – countless worlds – endless adventure

Hanukkah is already here, so Happy Hanukkah to those of you who celebrate that blessed holiday. Christmas and winter are on the wind and getting closer every day.

The Christmas holiday season is special to me for many reasons, but especially the wonderful people in my life, including you. We have been pounding out and filling up Christmas Surprise Packages like crazy. We know we're doing a good job and making you all quite happy, because many of you have been telling us so or ordering your second or third Surprise Package. Awesome. That's the whole idea, making people smile and delivering Christmas joy to as many people as possible.

Two new things: A new digital Palladium Catalog is now available for your perusal. It should be a helpful resource and good for selecting items for the Wish List of your Surprise Package Palladium Gift Certificates are also now available, because you requested them. Enjoy.

Otherwise, my focus has been three things, 1) spreading Christmas cheer every way I can (to you that's the Surprise Packages and other sales), 2) finishing the Rifts® Bestiary, and 3) getting the next several other books into production (mainly assigning artwork and wrangling freelance writers).

I'm happy that people are digging the release of BTS Sourcebook Boxed Nightmares™, Ni ghtbane® Sourcebook 4: Shadows of Light™ and the alien invasion Systems Failure™ RPG. I'm also thrilled that The Rifter® #82 shipped last Friday because it's a great issue on the heels of several great issues. Some folks are understandably disappointed that will be going on an indefinite hiatus after issue #84

The Rifter®

, but we have some great stuff planned for #83 and #84. And a hiatus does not mean forever.

And let's not forget, as I stated in our announcement, we are doing this in order to get a lot more new books into your hands. And boy oh boy, do we have some great sourcebooks and welcomed surprises in store for you. To make them a reality, we need to focus.

I hope you know the Palladium staff and I are more dedicated than ever to bringing you great games, mind-bending sourcebooks and epic adventure for another three decades, God willing. So are the growing number of freelance artists and writers. To accelerate that process, we have to put The Rifter® aside for awhile. We love what we do and have so many new, bold ideas for products we can't wait to share with you.

I will talk about our plans for the future (all good) in the New Year. For now, let us focus on the fun and joy of the holiday season. I know people grumble about the commercialization of the holiday season, but as someone who grew up poor and who has lost too many loved ones, I cherish my friends and love to buy and make them things for the holidays. I love to surprise them and make them smile. I love sharing what little time I seem to have these days, just talking and goofing around. You should too. Time is too short, and we never know when that special someone will no longer be with us. In the past couple of months I've had two dear friends suffer heart attacks. Both guys are in good health and only in their forties. Thankfully, both survived and are doing well. I also recently reconnected with one of my old Defilers. A great guy and wonderful player. About five years ago he nearly died and still faces challenges in the aftermath of that cataclysmic event. (Hang tough, my friend!)

The point is, show those you care about how much they mean to you. Not necessarily with a physical gift, but with a card, short letter, email, text, or better yet, a telephone call or a visit. Nothing beats hearing each other's voice or being face to face. Reconnect and call to say, "Hello, been thinking of you." I was thrilled to hear from my old Defiler friend. A sweet guy who was sort of the young Luke Skywalker of the gaming group and of the Defilers, and of whom I have only the fondest memories. I'm having lunch with another friend today and will enjoy a party at the neighbors later this evening. Kathy and I live on a street that's like something out of the movie It's a Wonderful Life, where everyone knows each other's name, smiles, waves and stops to chat. It's very nice and very different than the world I grew up in as a child. And this is the time of year to let the good people in your life know they matter. A phone call may be one of the most welcomed gifts of the season.

So with that sentiment, I'm going to focus on good cheer and the positive. Our warm regards to every one of you from me and all of us at Palladium Books. We appreciate and value our extended Palladium family. (By the way, that's you, in case you didn't know.) Which is why I always post more of the comments from the Surprise Packages through the holidays. Everyone seems to enjoy reading them and we like to give a little shout out to some of our fans by sharing their comments and kind words.

NEWS: Updated Digital Catalog

It has been long overdue, but we finally have a current PDF Catalog of Palladium Books® products available

here on the Palladium Website and on

DriveThruRPG.com

Rex Bardoll

Scott Gibbons

for planting the seeds to do so in the first place.

NEWS: Palladium Gift Certificates now available

You asked for them, so due to popular request, you can now purchase Palladium Gift Certificates

for your gaming friends and loved ones who are difficult to buy for. The prompts should be pretty self-explanatory. You purchase the desired amount, fill out the email info of that person along with an optional gift message, and that individual gets an email with info on how to redeem the Gift Certificate and you get a confirmation email. Simple. Another big thanks to and Wayne Smith

for doing the work to make Gift Certificates available in the Palladium online store and to Chuck Walton
for his frequent reminders to get it done.

of which gamers cannot get enough.

Whether you celebrate Christmas, Hanukkah,

Kwanzaa

, or the Winter

Solstice

, or you're looking for a gift for a birthday, anniversary, Valentine's Day

, or any

special occasion

that falls between now and March, a

Surprise Package

may be the ideal way to go. You get a ton of stuff on the cheap, you can get a bunch of autographs, and you look like you spent a fortune.

- Fill holes in your own collection.

- Try new game settings – Rifts®, Palladium Fantasy®, Heroes Unlimited™, Splicers®, Nightbane®, Dead Reign®, Beyond the Supernatural™, Rifts® Chaos Earth®, After the Bomb® (mutant animals), Ninjas & Superspies™, RECON® and all the rest.

- Get cool stuff (miniatures, bookmarks, maps, prints, greeting cards, T-shirts, etc.).

- Request autographs and Kevin and available Palladium staff and freelancers will sign every book.

- Get something for your fellow gamers or favorite Game Master, husband, wife, brother, sister, child, etc.

- Be surprised when the package arrives.

- All items personally selected and comments read by Santa Kevin, himself. Ho, ho, ho!

Your “Wish List” is vital – The Palladium Surprise Packages are designed to simulate the joy and surprise of the Christmas Season of Giving.

To do this, you submit a list of

12-15 Palladium products

(or more)

FOR EACH

Surprise Package you order. This list of 12-15 items for EACH Grab Bag

is critical

, because you will not know which items we will select to send you. That makes it just like a

Christmas gift

because it's a surprise

. Plus, Santa Kevin, who personally hand-picks every item for every Grab Bag, may toss in something extra like a limited edition print, or color maps, or T-shirt, or issue of The Rifter®, or something else he thinks you'll enjoy.

Send us your brief comments. There is a special form and format to fill out for Christmas Surprise Packages

, including a place where you can offer your brief

comments, suggestions, greetings and salutations.

Please spread the word to gamers everywhere. People only learn about the Palladium Christmas Surprise Package offer by word of mouth, The Rifter® and our website, so please post and spread the word everywhere.

To those of you outside the USA, the X-Mas Surprise Package is a way to get books and circumvent the damn high cost of shipping from the United States. Since you are getting $90-$100 worth of product and only paying $46 plus a small handling charge, shipping via Priority Mail International

(required for packages weighing more than four pounds) to most locations in Europe, Canada and many other countries is around

$50-$60 US dollars

. HOWEVER, because the cost of the product is so low, that's the equivalent of paying retail for the products and only $0-$30 for shipping. A very good deal. Plus you get autographs if you want them! X-Mas Surprise Packages are the way to go for those of you outside the USA.

Please take advantage of it to get all those products you've wished you could get except the shipping was too prohibitive. We feel your pain.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The X-Mas Surprise Package is a Grab Bag. As such, while we always try to send you items from your Wish List, you may NOT get everything you ask for and you are likely to get one or more items NOT on your list, like The Rifter®, or other item(s) we think you should enjoy. PLEASE give us a long Wish List and fill out other questions (favorite Palladium games, would like to try X, and so on) because it helps us to make your Surprise Package special. If you need or want specific items, do NOT use the Surprise Package; place a regular order at full retail to guarantee you get the books you want. Offer ends December 24, 2018.

Also note:

There are no Digital Surprise Packages this year.

Shipping Guidelines for Christmas delivery – 2 weeks till Christmas weekend

IF YOU WANT YOUR ORDER or SURPRISE PACKAGE IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS, YOU NEED TO ORDER OVER THE NEXT 10 DAYS! For most of you in the USA, placing an order over the next 10 days guarantees you get your Christmas Surprise Packages in time for Christmas without any concern.

And without having to pay for a faster more expensive method of shipping! That gives you till December 17 to place orders in time for Christmas

The only exception is

Media Mail

, as it is slower and less reliable. If shipping by Media Mail, place your order BEFORE December 11 – and even then there is no guarantee

whenever you use Media Mail.

Note:

When you place your order now and over the next 10 days, you avoid the Christmas rush and reduce the chance of your package getting lost or delayed in the mail!

Shipping Considerations: When ordering, you need to factor in time for Palladium to process those orders (usually 24 hours, not counting weekends) and the actual transit time of shipping itself, generally 3-5 business days in the USA depending on where you live. 7-15 days in Canada.

Do NOT include Saturday or Sunday as shipping days, because they are not.

Get those orders in NOW to get your order

or

Surprise Packages

guaranteed in time for Christmas without having to pay an arm and a leg for expedited shipping!

Please make sure your address is complete and includes your Apartment Number. You help us and yourself by sending a long Wish List and making your order clear.

- Media Mail: Least expensive but risky. Place your order via Media Mail by December 11 and you should get your Surprise Package by Christmas. HOWEVER, Palladium will NOT guarantee any package shipped via Media Mail to arrive before Christmas.

Use this method at your own risk.

Note:

Media Mail, which applies only to paper goods, is the least expensive method of shipping, BUT also the slowest and least reliable method. The USPS will tell you 4-7 days for delivery, HOWEVER, experience has shown us that delivery time is more like 8-21 days during the Christmas season.

Ship via Media Mail at your own risk.

Note:

If you want your 2018 Surprise Package
quickly,

DO NOT ship via Media Mail; use

UPS

or

Priority Mail

instead. Rare books and one-of-a-kind items like original art, numbered prints and gold editions CANNOT be replaced if lost or damaged in the mail.

The risk and the loss is YOURS and the items, even books, will NOT be replaced if you ship via Media Mail.

- UPS Ground in the USA is 3-5 days delivery to almost all locations other than Alaska and Hawaii. However, there can be delays due to weather, accidents and sheer volume. Place your order by December 15 to guarantee Christmas delivery. Those of you who live have till

east of the Mississippi River may

December 17

. Since Christmas is on Tuesday, those of you east of the Mississippi should get your order in time, as UPS Ground ships to most locations in the east in 2-3 days, but it is a small gamble. Those of you living west of the Mississippi

need to get orders to us no later than

December 13

to absolutely

guarantee

delivery by Monday, December 24 or sooner. Barring unexpected weather or accidents, of course.

- Priority Mail in the USA – Place your order by December 13 (should be a bit cheaper than UPS 3-Day Select). Priority mail orders placed as late as December 16 should arrive in time for Christmas, but cannot be guaranteed.

Express Shipping Methods:

- UPS 3-Day Select in the USA – Place your order by December 17 for guaranteed Christmas delivery.

- UPS 2nd Day Air in the USA – Place your order by December 18.

- UPS Next Day Air in the USA – Place your order by December 20 to receive the package on Saturday or Monday (Christmas Eve).

- Express Mail in the USA – Place your order by December 17.

- Parcel Post in the USA – NOT ADVISED. Placing an order by December 13 means you MAY get your order in time for Christmas, but probably not. There is only a 33% chance. We CANNOT guarantee a Christmas delivery using Parcel Post at this time.

- December 6 – to our friends in Canada and overseas – We suggest ordering no later than December 6

, but sooner is better as we cannot
guarantee

delivery in time for Christmas. Your package should arrive in time, but if there are delays at Customs, work strike, bad weather, etc., it might miss. Order sooner rather than later. Happy Holidays, one and all!

Remember: 1. Palladium needs a day or two to process and pack orders, and we cannot ship on the weekends. As Christmas gets near, we will work our hardest to turn orders around as fast as possible. Order on Sunday, it should go out on Monday ... but maybe Tuesday depending on volume.

2. Surprise Package mitigates overseas shipping costs – take advantage of this while you can. The low cost of the Surprise Package mitigates the cost of shipping. It is, in effect, the equivalent of getting the books you want at retail, plus autographs, and paying the equivalent of only $5-$20 for overseas shipping! MANY overseas customers take advantage of the Surprise Packages for this reason! And it is likely the ONLY way for you to get autographs. Give it a try, we don't think you will be disappointed.

3. Palladium Books has NO control over the shipping service once it leaves our warehouse, nor over the cost of shipping/postage, or the brokerage fees, Customs charges, taxes or any other related fees charged by other countries. Within the USA, Media Mail is the least expensive method of shipping, but also the least reliable and slowest. To our Canadian customers, we have no idea why it costs so much to mail books and product to you. So much for NAFTA making things easier. Game on.

Charles Walton II Artwork, Toys and Collectibles “on sale”

For the first time ever, Charles “Chuck” Walton has decided to offer a dozen or two dozen pieces of original artwork via my online store

Includes original art from

Rifts® Sovietski, Secrets of the Atlanteans, Rifts® Chaos Earth®

and others. This is a fun and unique opportunity to get some of Chuck's art other than having to attend one of the few conventions where Chuck is a guest. He sold a good number at Gen Con and was wondering how he might make his art more available to people. I suggested trying my online store. Most prices range from $50-150, with a few more expensive pieces. Artwork make a great gift for the hard to surprise gamer. Enjoy. Chuck says thanks.

Other one-of-a-kind original artwork available by me (Kevin Siembieda), Kevin Long, Mark Evans

(money goes to the artist), as well as prints, limited edition hardcovers, proofreader copies, out of print items, Star Wars toys, Marvel toys and many other toys and collectibles from my personal collection. Alex and I will keep adding items as our busy schedules allow, but we have a lot of fun collectibles available now and coming soon. Hundreds of items. Take a look every weekend for new additions.

[Shalom and good fortune right back at you, B.B. I enjoy video games and love movies, but I completely agree that there is nothing like the traditional RPG experience. It's the greatest. Happy Hanukkah and

game on! – KS]

P.M. in Commerce Township, Michigan, writes, in part: I've been playing Rifts® for a long time. Unfortunately, I fell out of the game for the last 8-10 years and trying to get back into it with my brothers and sons. Looking forward to introducing it to a new generation of players and having some creative fun... Excited to start up a regular group again!

[Welcome back, P.M.! Good luck with your new campaign. I hope the Surprise Package helped to launch new fun adventures for everyone. Please keep your eyes peeled because we have some BIG plans for Rifts® and ... aaarggh, that's all I can say at this time. But you'll like it. Hey, you and your crew must come to the 2021 Palladium Open House here in Westland, Michigan! Start planning now. – KS]

W.K. in New York, New York, writes: I have almost every Rifts® book (they're so good, yay!), and I'm now completing my collection of Palladium Fantasy books.

[Smart, W.K. Those are two of my favorite game lines, though all of our game settings have a special place for me. You know, like a proud papa. Collect and game on! – KS]

J.H. in Cadillac, Michigan, writes: Love the books. I have one suggestion doing the Rifts® Bestiaries™, why not do a similar book for O.C.C.s, men at arms, men of magic, etc.? Keep up the great work.

[Hmmm, we'll give that idea some thought J.H., thanks. – KS]

H.B. in Orem, Utah, writes, in part: ... been a fan since 1986. Thank you for being part of my life and my son's too.

book combined with

Haunted Tech™

? ... Thank you for the X-Mas Packages and 30+ years of inspiring my imagination. Keep up the great job!

[Hey, J.M., thanks for the kind words. Always happy to fuel the imagination. No, Titan Robotics™ is separate from Haunted Tech™. There is an important reason H.T. has been rescheduled with other things coming out first.

Titan Robotics™

, however, will see release in 2019 along with

Rifts® The Disavowed

, and others. Keep that imagination burning bright. – KS]

K.B. in Westminster, California, writes, in part: I love Rifts®. Trying to rebuild my collection. I'm going with a Coalition theme Wish List this year. Keep Truckin'. ... If you had a slogan I'd end my comments with it, but I'll just say, Palladium rules!

[Thank you for the high praise, K.B. Coalition it is. We'll do our best to keep on truckin' for many years to come, and you do the same. Enjoy the holidays and thanks for making me laugh (too bad I can't repeat it).
– KS]

C.T. in Sante Fe, New Mexico, writes, in part: Thank you so much for another great year of gaming, and for once again making the Christmas Surprise Packages available again! I really look forward to this time of year thanks to you!

Systems Failure™ RPG – Back in Stock – just for the Holidays

When the cities fell, and the world went "off-line," all seemed lost. Anarchy reigned.

On an alternate Earth, all that is left are the Survivalists, Nature-Lovers, Farmers, Gun Bunnies, Eggheads and backwoods wackos living on the fringe. Either people found in remote regions or those who were prepared for the Y2K Bug and the collapse of civilization.

Oh, and there are “bugs” alright. Alien, bug-like things that feed on energy and turn humans into zombie-like slaves. Things are worse than anyone could have imagined, even for those who were prepared. But these survivors are not ready to give up. America (and then the world) will be free! And they mean business. Play the unlikely heroes fighting to save the world in a post-holocaust environment.

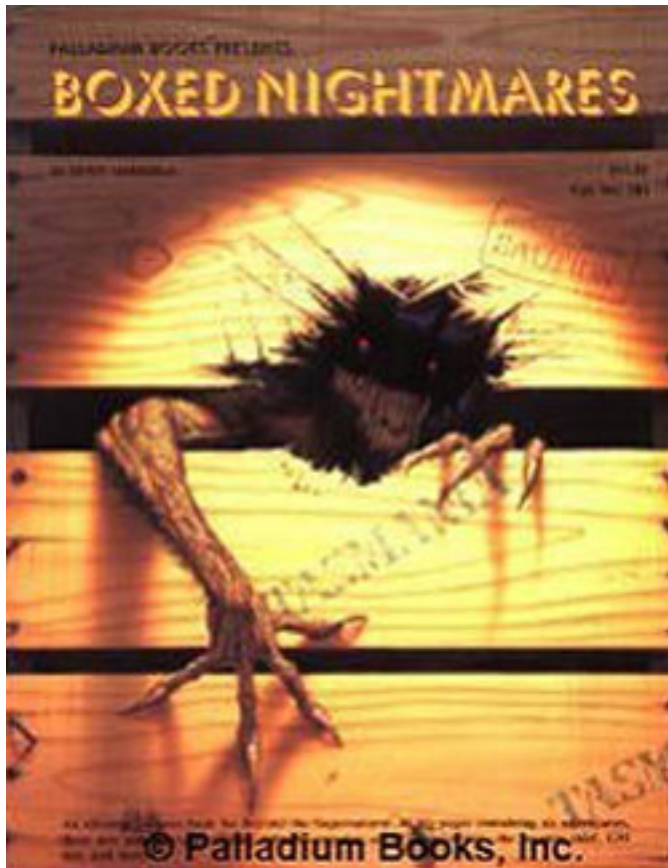

This is an action-packed, post-holocaust role-playing game that can be played straight and serious, or with a touch of satire and humor. Back in 1999, this RPG was inspired by fears of the Y2K Bug and possible end of the world as we knew it. So THIS game is an alternate Earth where Y2K was a real event and worse than anyone could imagine. Enjoy the wild characters and setting, and destroy some Bugs!

- A complete, stand-alone role-playing game.
- S.D.C. setting and all the info you need to play.
- The Villains:* Monstrous invaders from another dimension drawn to all things electronic. Deadly and weird.
- The Unlikely Heroes:* Society's castaways, nutcases, and survivalists.

Boxed Nightmares™ – Adventure Sourcebook for Beyond the Supernatural™
– Back in Stock – just for the Holidays

Boxed Nightmares™ is exactly what the title suggests, ordinary people coming face to face with supernatural nightmares. The adventures are designed to give players and Game Masters a better idea of the variety and scope of adventures one can explore in the world of modern horror. Some adventures are short, others long. Some are monster stomping action, while others require investigation, cunning, and the uncovering of clues.

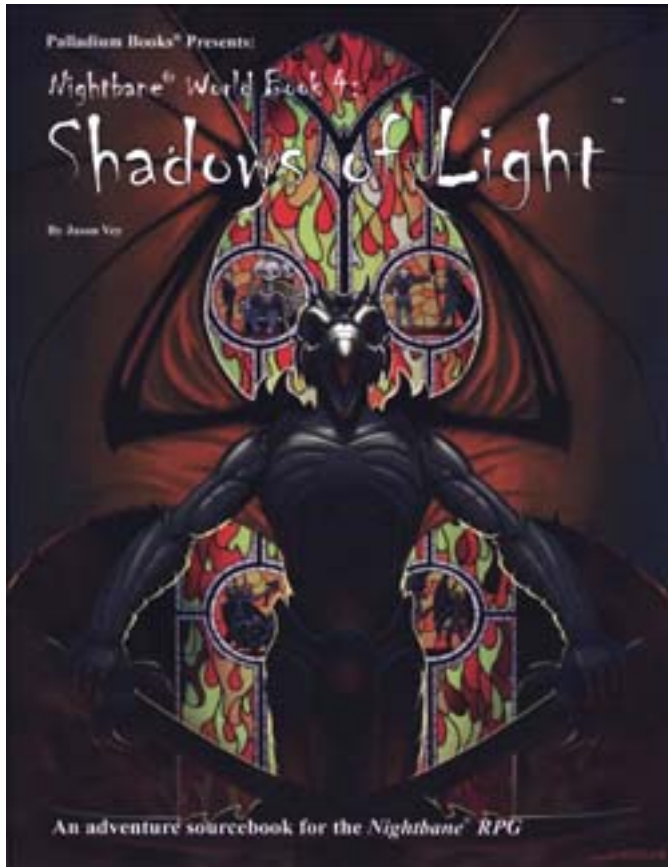

The newspaper portion is in the back of the book. It is one of those sensational, check-out counter tabloids that boasts headlines like Woman marries Big Foot, or Elvis's clone living in Tampa. However, this tabloid is tied to the adventure portion of the sourcebook in several different ways. First, it contains clues and information for the actual adventures inside the sourcebook. Second, the publishers of the paper often hire psychics and parapsychologists to investigate strange phenomena, so your characters could be working for the tabloid company. And third, it may give you ideas for additional adventures.

- Rules and tips for creating secret organizations.
- Adventures in the USA, South America and Australia.
- Crazed Arcanists, Gremlins,

Tasmanian Devils, a Possessing Entity that has absorbed the memories of a serial killer, and more.

- The After Midnight tabloid, filled with clues and adventure ideas, reproduced in the back of the book.
  - Cover by Denis Beauvais. Interior art by Kevin Long. Written by Kevin Siembieda.

New! Rifts® Bestiary™ : North America, Vol. One

A series of books that collects all the notable monsters, dinosaurs and creepy crawlers and creatures of Rifts® North America (US, Canada and Mexico) into two juicy volumes with a number of new creatures. The Garden of the Gods is said to be a holy place watched over and even frequented by the
